In 2014, investors pumped $6.5 billion into 459 health technology startups across the United States, many of which originated at hackathons. Traditionally, a hackathon is where a large group of coders come together to collaborate to create usable software or ideas. A2 Health Hacks turns this idea on its head and brings together hackers, makers, entrepreneurs, and healthcare professionals to build on everyone's collective knowledge and experience to tackle some of the industry's most complicated issues.

TC New Tech's event is free and open to the public. From Traverse City to Alpena, Sault Ste. Marie to Grand Rapids — all are welcome! Each presenter will be allowed five minutes to present and five minutes of Q&A (time limits will be politely enforced). $500 is given away to the “best pitch” as voted on by the audience. Between presenters, the audience is allowed to make brief announcements for things such as job openings, persons seeking employment, and other events happening in the area related to technology. An optional informal social hour is after the meeting for further discussion and networking. The audience is typically made up of technology-minded people and consists mostly of programmers, IT staff, people looking for opportunities for their tech company, tech companies looking for staff, individuals looking for an investment opportunity, startup founders looking for investors, and tech geeks that like learning about new offerings. Meetings are held monthly on the first Tuesday of every month at 6 p.m. and will last no longer than 75-minutes... Guaranteed! The presenter line-up is announced one week before the meetup. The goal of the meetings is to facilitate networking and interaction among technology enthusiasts in northern Michigan.

Lansing, MI

BRITANY AFFOLTER-CAINE - Executive Director

britanyaffolter-caine@urcmich.org, 517-999-4007

Michigan's University Research Corridor (URC) is one of the nation's top academic research clusters and the leading engine for innovation in Michigan and the Great Lakes region. An alliance of Michigan State University, the University of Michigan and Wayne State University, the URC is focused on increasing economic prosperity and connecting Michigan to the world. The URC is competitive with the nation's top university research clusters, including Silicon Valley and North Carolina's Research Triangle, and is unique among these clusters because it's comprised of three distinct yet complementary research universities that are all public-serving institutions. With its annual R&D activity at $2.3 billion, the URC accounts for 92 percent of all academic R&D conducted in the state, driving Michigan to a top 10 national ranking for total academic R&D conducted. The URC contributes $18.7 billion annually to Michigan's economy, reaching every county in the state. The URC also generated nearly 79,000 jobs in the state in 2017 and awards more than 36,000 degrees each year. The URC has cultivated at least 230 startup companies since 2002. Half of the URC's 1.2 million living alumni call Michigan home. The alliance makes Michigan attractive to business and talent by training the next generation of highly skilled, in-demand workers, finding solutions through innovative research, and fostering an array of international business and academic partnerships.

Launched in 2011 as a way of helping Michigan's then-struggling economy, Varnum pledged to give $1 million in free legal services to businesses and individuals. In 2016, Varnum renewed its commitment to Michigan startups by dedicating a second $1 million in free legal services through the MiSpringboard program. Varnum partner Matt Bower, whose practice focuses on entrepreneurs and startups, works extensively with MiSpringboard. "For most of our MiSpringboard clients, we are helping them with the building blocks of getting their company off the ground," Bower said. "Once that groundwork has been laid, an emerging company is much better able to get traction and attract investors or other financing." Fishman Stewart is a premier specialty law firm that identifies, secures, and advances the creativity of its clients to accomplish their business goals. In addition to the firm's decades of legal expertise, many of its attorneys also have advanced technical degrees and associated practical work experience. As strategic advisers to CEOs and senior executives throughout the world, Fishman Stewart helps to maximize the value of "intellectual capital." Patents, trademarks, copyrights, trade secrets, and other forms of intellectual property are key elements of a company's business strategy; managed effectively, they can protect new product lines, increase market share, and head off competition.

The firm believes that creativity should be managed in the same way that companies manage their physical capital. While all companies have strategies for maximizing and leveraging their use of physical capital, they may not have a plan for protecting their creativity. Safeguarding the assets of a new enterprise in a strategic manner is crucial to defining and driving long-term business value, which ultimately separates a bad investment from a great one.

MICHIGAN VENTURE CAPITAL ASSOCIATION

MVCA OVERVIEW

The MVCA Board of Directors and staff are dedicated to expanding opportunities for the growth of Michigan's entrepreneurial and investment community through the following programs, services and publications:

Advocacy

Core to MVCA's mission is serving as the statewide voice for Michigan's growing entrepreneurial and investment community. MVCA educates, advocates and communicates to legislators, the media and the general public on entrepreneurial investment opportunities, challenges and successes in Michigan.

Events

MVCA facilitates the development of a strong network within the Michigan entrepreneurial and investment community and builds connections with out-of-state angel and venture investors through targeted meetings and events.

Research

MVCA distributes an annual research report, which provides a comprehensive summary of venture capital investment activities across Michigan.

MVCA works with the National Venture Capital Association, Pitchbook, the U.S. Census Bureau, and the Angel Capital Association to provide information about Michigan's entrepreneurial and investment activities relative to national trends. The annual research report is the critical source of quantitative information used to unite the Michigan entrepreneurial and investment community into a common voice to drive initiatives that encourage its growth in Michigan.

Outreach

MVCA broadens the reach of Michigan's entrepreneurial and investment community by building relationships and educating national partners on opportunities and trends in Michigan.

Programs

MVCA provides program development assistance to Michigan's entrepreneurial and economic support organizations on matters targeting Michigan's talent and capital gaps. In this role, MVCA collaborates with organizations by facilitating research, providing direction and assembling feedback within the proposed programs' scope to help shape the ultimate goals and desired outcomes of the program, so that they best suit the identified needs of Michigan's entrepreneurial and investment community.

- Venture Fellows: MVCA aims to increase the number of venture professionals in Michigan and accelerate fundraising and deployment of capital into early-stage companies. Venture Fellows launch their venture capital careers at Michigan-based venture firms.
- Education & Outreach Initiative: MVCA engages with venture firms, entrepreneurs, universities and economic development organizations from across the country to educate people about the entrepreneurial and investment community in Michigan. In addition to promoting Michigan's successes, MVCA provides research, direction and feedback to entrepreneurial support organizations in an effort to help shape the ultimate goals and outcomes of their initiatives so they may better address the identified needs of Michigan's entrepreneurial and investment community.

We wanted to give a special shout out to our MVCA Summer Intern Myna Palakurthi! Myna is a senior at the University of Michigan-Stephen M. Ross School of Business where she is pursuing a bachelor's degree in business administration. She played a critical role in developing the newly updated 2019-2020 Michigan Entrepreneurial & Investment Guide. Over the summer, she was responsible for coordinating, reviewing, and completing the Landscape Guide entries for more than 200 venture firms, angel groups, service providers, and entrepreneurial support organizations. Her hard work and dedication to the project was an incredible asset to MVCA and its members. Thank you, Myna!
